

Dear Sir / Mam,

Greetings from Lavish Journeys..!!

This is a detailed checklist for individuals applying for a Chinese Work Visa (Z Visa) through the Chinese Embassy in New Delhi. The checklist covers various requirements for foreign experts working in China, including those for commercial performance, chief representatives, off shore oil operations, volunteering, and foreigners working in China with a Work Permit.

Here's a breakdown of the checklist:

General Requirements

1. Valid Passport: Minimum six months' validity and at least two blank visa pages.
2. Chinese Visa Application Form: Completely filled online.
3. Passport-Sized Photograph: One colored photograph with a white, background (48mm x 33mm).
4. Covering Letter: Typed formal letter addressed to the Chinese Embassy, including company profile, applicant's name, passport number, purpose of travel, and travel plan.
5. Passport Copies: Photo copies of the passport's front data page, last page, and earlier traveled Chinese visa copies.

Additional Requirements

1. Physical Examination Record: Original and photocopy of the record issued by an Indian government hospital or a Chinese government hospital, with a stamped photo and signed by an authorized doctor (valid for 3 months).

2. Employment Approval Document: Original and copy of the Notification Letter issued by the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security of the People's Republic of China.

- If the applicant has a valid Work Permit, an invitation letter from the employer, a copy of the valid Work Permit, and a detailed list obtained by scanning the QR code on the Work Permit ID card are required.

3. Qualification Certificates: Photocopies of the applicant's professional and educational qualification certificates.

Final Steps

1. Arrange all documents according to the checklist.

It's essential to ensure that all required documents are submitted to avoid any delays or rejections in the visa application process.

If you have any specific questions or concerns regarding this checklist, feel free to ask!